Jonathan Dawson*:

" This is an attractive film that tells the story of the modern cohousing movement through the voices of people in Scandinavia and northern Europe who actually live in cohousing settlements.

It is accessible, clear, well-structured and should be of great interest, especially to those who are new to the cohousing phenomenon.

The many advantages of cohousing life - a strong sense of community, a great place to bring up kids and to grow old, working towards having a lower footprint - are well covered and illustrated. This film is a little gem of simple story-telling."

Mathias Bienert*:

" As we are planning to start a community project, we were boosted by this documentary. It is extremely helpful to help people getting involved. Thank you so much for that!"
